Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

Skylark partners with local churches to provide world-class full summer camps in church facilities that are accessible, affordable, fun and spiritually intentional. Skylark enables our church partners to attract lots of unreached kids and families in the community, provide them a great summer experience, share the Gospel, and integrate them into the church.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Skylark's program is aimed to develop the spiritual, emotional, social, mental, and physical well-being of grade school aged children. Our kids attend our reading program (SIGMA) multiple times a week, which keeps children on reading level through both staff directed, and self-directed reading fun! Staff-led Bible studies are spiritually enriching, and provide a place of discussion, reading, memorization, and singing. The design of cabin groups is intended to encourage social-emotional learning and playful engagement with peers. Activities are interspersed throughout the day to encourage children to be outside and live an active lifestyle. Parents have multiple ways to engage with camp through attending both in-person events, virtual postings, and accessible on-site staff via phone for any questions they may have. Lastly, all children and activities are led by our amazing college-aged staff in a 1:6 ratio to encourage safety, strong relationships, and give kids the best individual attention possible.
